THE GOLDEN CHURCH.

Corner-stone of Elizabeth Church Laid By Bishop Matz.

The corner stone of the new S Elizabeth's church of Golden was laid by Ri. Rev. Augustus C. Maiz, bishop of Colorado, in the presence of 500 visiting priests and churchmen of Denver and half the population of Golden. It is several years since a public event in Golden has been given such great prominence as the ceremony, and the parishioners of St. Elizabeth's are anticipating great success in the church work, considering the auspicious circumstances attending this effort to establish the Catholic church in Golden upon a substantial footing.

In 1867, under the administration of lishop Machbout, the first church in Golden was desfected. It was a low beard structure, 5200 feet, which, with a small addition, is still in use for Catholic worship. Many attempts have been made to erect a comfortable build. some stone and brick structure has been haid, and funds are already in right to complete the church, which, with the block of hand adjoining, will be worth about $10,000.

The plans were drawn by Father Adrian of the Franciscan order, builder of St. Elimbeth's church, Denver, and architect for over 100 Catholic churches and monasteries. The Golden chapel will have a seating capacity of about 400; in of the Gothic style of architecture, and will be superbly decorated throughout the interior.

Hishop Mair was attended from Denver by twenty commanderies of the Kuights of St. John, in command of Major Catamangh. The St. Elizabeth commandery was in charge of Captain F. W. Paroth, and the St. Joseph division in charge of Captain Tierney. The Catholic Mutual Benevolent association of St. Elizabeth's church, led by President Charles Punst, followed in a body after the bishop, as did also the Laties' auxiliary to the Knights of St. John.
